

ALL OVER OKLAHOMA and Neighboring States

Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 16.—M. R. Kuykendall, superintendent of the state teachers association, succeeded M. A. Cash, resigned, to become state supervisor of education.

EL RENO, Nov. 16.—The midwinter meeting of the Oklahoma Press association was held at the Hotel El Reno in El Reno City on January 3 and 4, as Secretary E. B. Hinman announced.

OKEMAH, Nov. 16.—According to the government report there was $113 more of nation ginned in Okfuskee county from the 1922 crop prior to November 1 than from the 1921 crop. This figure is claimed to November 1, 1921. This shows a shortage of $124 below ginned this year as was ginned at the same date in 1921.

ARDMORE, Nov. 16.—The Ardmore chamber of commerce has presented the state map of Oklahoma to Senator J. W. Hauser with maps of the roads in this section of the state and all which is known as the "road map" of Ardmore.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 16.—The cost of services for foot traffic underneath the Santa Fe tracks on Grand and Cheyenne avenues here is to be investigated again by the chamber of commerce. The construction of such embankments, it is believed, will solve the present problem of safety for business and also provide safety for persons who must cross the tracks.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 16.—First election of two men from this state to receive the Humanitarian award will be December 2 according to W. S. Campbell, assistant professor of English at the University of Oklahoma, chairman of the Oklahoma Rhodes committee.

PAWLOWA, Nov. 16.—The body of Dr. Kemper L. Collier, physician of Bartlesville, who died February 27, this year, was removed yesterday from the room where he had been laid up in the hospital of Hazel, Va. The doctor was one of the most skilled surgeons in Oklahoma. A brief service was held in the home of his dead son's widow, Mrs. Hazel Collier, and two daughters, Eleanor and Bertha, accompanying the body to Virginia.

ATOKA, Nov. 16.—The $400 reward offered for the capture of George Brown wanted in this country since 1916 for the alleged murder of Ben Pearson, has been renewed by Gov. G. H. Odle. The governor said Oklahoma county authorities charge that Brown killed Pearson on October 11, 1916.

VINTON, Nov. 16.—Dr. M. L. Butter, practicing oculist of the Lawton district of the west, Oklahoma, who was appointed pastor of the First Methodist church South of this city at the recent conference held here, has been called to the pulpit of one of the older members of the church whose pastor he was for four years from 1907 to 1911. After his retirement from the conference the last one on the long list, there was handshaking by the surviving members of Vinton members at the meeting, awaiting their satisfaction at the appointment.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 16.—Members of the local American Legion post for commander are Marvin Strickler and Dr. R. C. Baker. The election will take place on November 26.

PAWHUKKA, Nov. 16.—A rural school building began work in Garza county December 1, according to action to be taken by the county commissioners soon in connection with recommendations made by the local health commission of the public health association, with headquarters located at Oklahoma City. Mr. H. C. Sawyer will be recommended to the place.

CHICKASHA, Nov. 16.—Before the closing of the annual meeting here Chickasha was selected as the place for the next annual meeting of the National convention of Oklahoma Reservoirs for pressing the convention's gratitude for the hospitality extended by the city officials. Miss Mary May, who was selected to deliver the annual sermon to be preached on the opening day of the 1923 session, which begins here on the week of the first Tuesday in November.

PICHER, Nov. 16.—The Jeff City Mining company which suspended operations about two years ago, is one of several mining concerns in the state still in reserve operations. The company has a 20-year lease on the Harry Whitehead land, one-half mile east of Picher.

BARTLESVILLE, Nov. 16.—The Muskogee Oklahoman is sponsoring under the direction of the National Federation of Music Clubs a young artist contest of Bartlesville. It is the intention of those people in charge of the contest that all music participants, who were eligible to enter the contest following this contest, a state contest would be held, then a district competition, and finally a national competition. The rules governing the contestants require an entrance fee of $1, which will assist the club in the expenses of the contest which will close the second week in February.

ATLANTIC, Nov. 16.—With good prices prevailing this season and the chance of successfully combating the weevil another year Carter county farmers expect a bumper crop this fall. The average price per bushel is expected to be $1.25, with an increase of as high as $1.50 per bushel in many sections. Some indications are given that the weevils have been eliminated and the acreage which was formerly in small grain will be devoted to cotton.

MIAMI, Nov. 16.—The appearance of a number of high priced birds will stimulate the Oktibbeha County bar to jury of the district court today led to reports of an investigation of alleged sale of the birds. Recently a number of bird fanciers have been made in the prosecuting attorney that Rader was being induced to tax so-called pet birds which have been imported from foreign countries. The birds which were imported will be sold the second week in February.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 16.—With good prices prevailing this season and the chance of successfully combating the weevil another year Carter county farmers expect a bumper crop this fall. The average price per bushel is expected to be $1.25, with an increase of as high as $1.50 per bushel in many sections. Some indications are given that the weevils have been eliminated and the acreage which was formerly in small grain will be devoted to cotton.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 16.—When Judge H. C. Christopher died in his term in January his successor will find a state that is as nearly clean as it is possible for Judge Christopher to make it. He has been called to the term of court to begin December 4, when all criminal and civil cases will be called for consideration.

NOWATA, Nov. 16.—The Nowata County Boarders' association is fostering a campaign to collect money for the purchase of a suitable cabin from the funds of Nowata county. Veterinarians have already tested many of the dairy herds of the county.

TAHLEQUAH, Nov. 16.—The National Indian Museum building at Tahlequah is being extensively improved. The name has been changed to the Indian Museum. The famous meeting place of chiefs, councilmen and distinguished visitors from distant states no longer exist only in the memories of the old timers.

MISSOURI, Nov. 16.—The annual general meeting of the Johnson County Poultry Association will be held here. More than 1,000 birds are expected to be entered.

QUITMAN, Mo., Nov. 16.—Elmer Johnson, a farmer living near the town of 200,000, has pledged at meetings of Lawrence county farmers and fruit growers. It is expected that Lawrence county will have a large set in growth within the next three years.

HOLDEN, Mo., Nov. 16.—The annual general meeting of the Johnson County Poultry Association will be held here. More than 1,000 birds are expected to be entered.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 16.—Many local physicians and surgeons are interested in developing the project. The coal is of excellent quality.

KENTUCKY, Nov. 16.—An effort is being made by the local chapters of confidence to have the William Kent

Laughs That Make You Live Longer

BY BUD FISHER

MUTT AND JEFF— Mutt Get's Inside Dope on the Lion Tamer's Password.

POLLY AND HER PALS— It Was Neewah's Loss, Too.

By CLIFF STERRETT

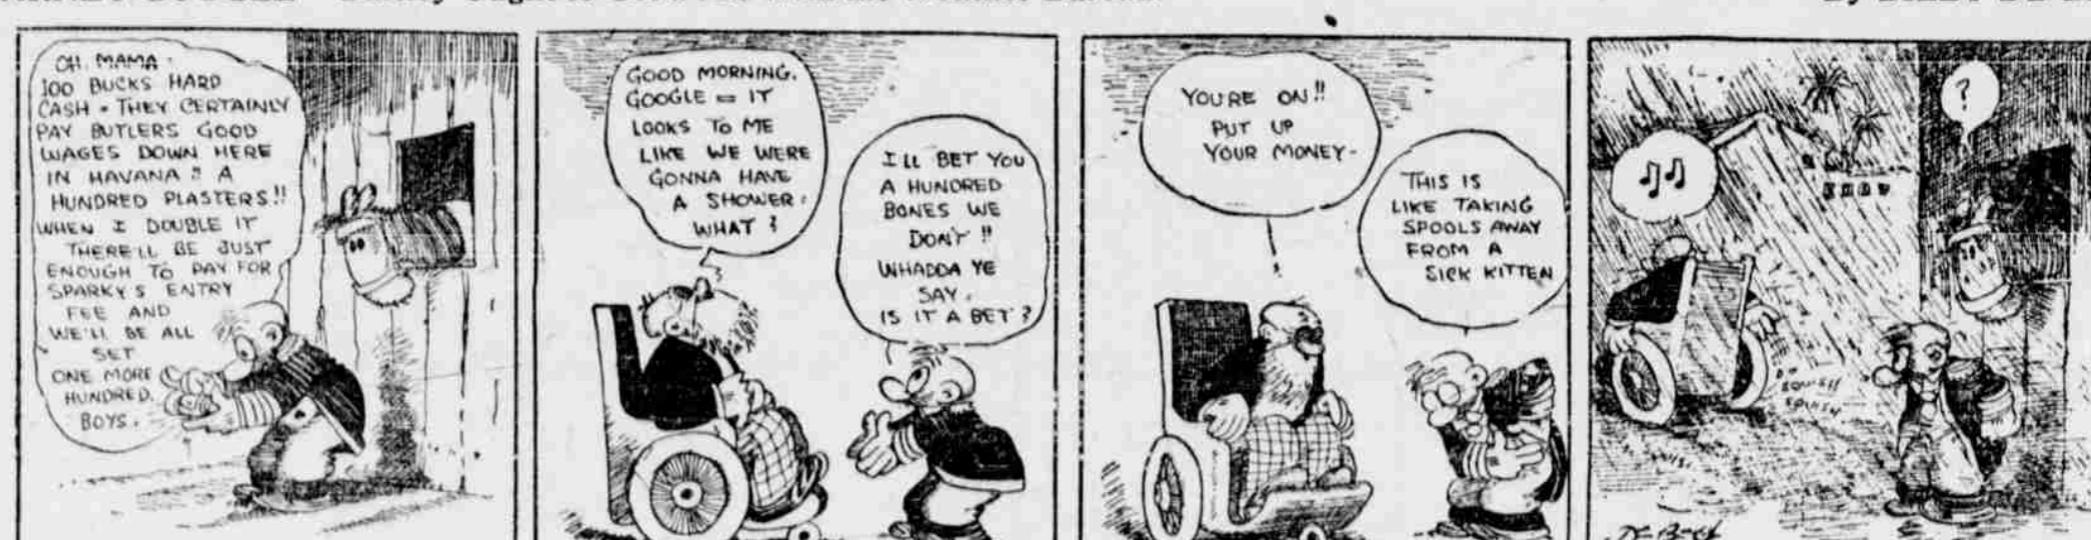

CASEY THE COP— Well the Little Bum!

By H. M. TALBURTT

BARNEY GOOGLE— Barney Ought to Get a Job With the Weather Bureau.

By BILLY DE BECK

THEM DAYS IS GONE FOREVER— Sing This in a Soulful Soprano.

By AL. POSEN

